Approved by the Organising Technical Committee of February 17th 2022

Academic Year 2022/2023

REGULATION FOR THE AWARDING OF PARTIAL AND TOTAL SCHOLARSHIPS/LOANS OF HONOUR IN THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022/2023 RESERVED TO NON-EU CITIZENS RESIDING ABROAD, WISHING TO ENROL IN THE FIRST YEAR OF THE THREE-YEAR DEGREE COURSES IN THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS OF THE SAINT CAMILLUS INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES (UNICAMILLUS).

INTRODUCTION

In the belief that motivated and deserving students must be supported in the achievement of their academic and professional ambitions, UniCamillus has decided to finance scholarships and Loans of Honour based on the assessment of the student's economic situation, merit and studies regularity. Scholarships and Loans of Honour are addressed to non-EU students residing abroad who have scarce economic resources, with the aim of training health personnel who then will return to their country to carry out their professional mission.

Art. 1 Beneficiaries

For the academic year 2022/2023, scholarships and Loans of Honour financed by UniCamillus, based on merit and income, are reserved to non-EU citizens residing abroad enrolled in one of the following:

- Degree in Physiotherapy;
- Degree in Midwifery;
- Degree in Nursing;
- Degree in Biomedical Laboratory Techniques;
- Degree in Radiology, Diagnostic Imaging and Radiotherapy Techniques.

The application for the benefit is independent from the enrolment procedure. The student who applied for the scholarship and is recognized eligible, but does not proceed with the enrolment, will lose his/her eligibility.

Art. 2 Value of the partial and total scholarships/Loans of Honour

For the academic year 2022/2023, UniCamillus offers a maximum of 10 partial and total scholarships/Loans of Honour for the coverage of the yearly fee due for each of the Health Professions Degree Courses.

The University reserves the right to extend the number of scholarships/Loans of Honour offered, even in subsequent moments, should the Evaluation Commission deemed necessary to increase the number of scholarships/Loans of Honour to grant to particularly deserving students.

For the academic year 2022/2023, the total scholarship/Loan of Honour covers the yearly fee due by the student.

For the academic year 2022/2023 the amount of the partial scholarship ranges from a minimum of Euro 750,00 to a maximum of Euro 2.750,00 and precisely:

- Degree Course in Physiotherapy: from a minimum of Euro 1.650,00 to a maximum of Euro 2.750,00;

- Degree Course in Midwifery: from a minimum of Euro 1.200,00 to a maximum of Euro 2.000,00;
- Degree Course in Nursing: from a minimum of Euro 750,00 to a maximum of Euro 1.250,00;
- Degree Course in Biomedical Laboratory Techniques: from a minimum of Euro 900,00 to a maximum of Euro 1.500,00;
- Degree Course in Radiology, Diagnostic Imaging and Radiotherapy Techniques: from a minimum of Euro 900,00 to a maximum of Euro 1.500,00.

In any case, the partial or total scholarships/Loans of Honour do not cover the regional tax that for the academic year 2022/2023 has not been fixed yet (as an indication, for the academic year 2021/2022 it was set at Euro 140,00).

The benefit deriving from the partial or total scholarships/Loans of Honour will be renewed annually, until the achievement of the degree, if the students comply with the requirements provided for by Article 6 of this regulation.

Art. 3 Features of the total scholarship/Loan of Honour

The total scholarship consists in a “Loan of Honour”, which is completely repaid in the case that, after the graduation, the student comes back as a professional to his country of origin, or in a similar country agreed with the University, to work there for at least three years.

Art 4 Commission for the awarding of the partial or total scholarships/Loans of Honour

In order to ensure the equality and the regularity of scholarship/Loan of Honour awarding procedure, UniCamillus will appoint a Commission with humanitarian sensitivity and experience in training.

Art. 5 Partial or total scholarships/Loans of Honour awarding procedure

Partial and total scholarships/Loans of Honour will be granted according to the following procedures.

1. Reception and evaluation of:

- Request for the awarding of a partial or total scholarship/Loan of Honour drawn up according to the guidelines attached to this Regulation (attachment A);
- Motivation letter and curriculum vitae drawn up by the candidate;
- Final score of high school diploma;
- One or more presentation letters by professors and those who took part in the education background of the candidate;
- Any documents, publications, material related to works, researches, studies, activities carried out by the candidate which are particularly relevant and pertinent to the course of study which the candidate wishes to undertake and/or the values and the mission of UniCamillus;
- Certificate or documentation attesting the composition of the student’s family and documentation certifying the economic-financial situation of the student’s family;
- Declaration of having read the Notice related to the treatment of personal data according to art. 13 and art. 14 of the EU Regulation 2016/679 on the “protection of natural persons with reference to the treatment of personal data” (hereinafter “GDPR”) provided by UniCamillus (attachment b).

2. Possible interview with the Evaluation Commission for the awarding of the partial and total scholarships/Loans of Honour.

Candidates interested in a partial or total scholarship/Loan of Honour must send a request to scholarships@unicamillus.org, attaching the above-mentioned documents in digital format, by 20/01/2022. Beyond this deadline, application for partial and total scholarships/Loans of Honour is not allowed.

The Commission will analyze only the requests complete with all the documentation required in this notice. Incomplete applications submitted by the date of January 20th 2022 will not be taken into consideration by the Commission for the purpose of awarding the scholarship.

For the same year of the Degree Course, students cannot benefit from another scholarship/Loan of Honor provided by other public or private bodies.

Art. 6 Requirements for the partial and total scholarships/Loans of Honour renewal

The student beneficiary of the partial or total scholarship/Loan of Honour for the academic year 2022/2023, has the right to have it renewed annually for a number of years equal to the legal duration of the Degree Course, if complying with the following requirements:

- average grade for the exams of the previous academic year equal or higher than 26/30;
- retention or worsening of the economic financial situation of the student's family as declared at the time of the first awarding;
- annual minimum number of University Credits (CFU) as specified in the following table (Table 1):

| THREE-YEAR DEGREE COURSES IN HEALTH PROFESSIONS | UNIVERSITY CREDITS (CFU) REQUIRED |
|--|---|
| 1° year | According to the procedure set in this call |
| 2° year | 46, to be achieved within the first year |
| 3° year | 92, to be achieved within the second year |

- Students beneficiaries of the partial or total scholarship/Loan of Honour must achieve the required University Credits (CFU) within the September exam session;
- In the case candidates do not reach the University Credits (CFU) specified in Table 1 or the exam average grade is lower than 26/30, the candidate assignee shall lose the benefit and shall pay the fees required according to the Tuition Fees Regulation;
- Students beneficiaries of the partial or total scholarship/Loan of Honour must achieve the Degree in 3 years' time; however the scholarship can be retained for further 6 months for the achievement of the Degree; once these 6 months are elapsed, the partial or total scholarship/Loan of Honour will be withdrawn and the candidate assignee shall pay the fees due according to the Tuition Fees Regulation.

The aforementioned requirements are necessary for the renewal, but they are not sufficient since the renewal is at the total discretion of the University, which will also evaluate other elements such as, but not limited to, the overall conduct of the student in the context of the Academic Community, the student's behavior in the broader context of the Italian civil society in which he/she will live and the availability of resources for scholarships.

Art. 7 Loss of the scholarship

The student will lose the partial or total scholarship/Loan of Honour if he:

- applies for renouncing the studies or for transferring to another University;
- incurs disciplinary sanctions more serious than a written reprimand, for infractions committed during his student life in UniCamillus;
- adopts attitudes that do not respect the common rules of conduct, both within the University and in the hospitals where the internship will be carried out;
- does not submit to UniCamillus any original documentation might be required for the verification of the truthfulness of the self-certifications submitted;
- presents or declares data which will later prove not true.

Art. 8 Sister Grace Foligah Scholarship

In addition to the scholarships referred to in Article 1 and 2 of the present Regulation, the Foundation Progetto Salute, Promoter of UniCamillus, has established for the academic year 2022/2023 a scholarship in memory of Sister Grace Foligah, for non-EU students with Ghanaian citizenship, residing abroad, enrolled in one of the following courses:

- Degree in Physiotherapy;
- Degree in Midwifery;
- Degree in Nursing;
- Degree in Biomedical Laboratory Techniques;
- Degree in Radiology, Diagnostic Imaging and Radiotherapy Techniques.

With regard to scholarship value, procedures for assignment, requirements for renewal and loss, relate to Articles 4, 5, 6 and 7 of the present Regulation.

Art. 9 Privacy

The data and information will be collected and processed in compliance with Legislative Decree 101/2018 and EU Regulation 679/2016.

Art.10 Remarks

For the legal and interpretative purposes of this Regulation, the text in Italian language approved and deposited at the Registrar's Office and of which a certified copy can be obtained, shall prevail. For all matters not provided for in this document, reference is made to the Statute and the Regulations that regulate the functioning of the University's activities.
