CONSIDERING

- The Law 2nd August 1999, n. 264, regarding "Regulations on access to university courses" and subsequent integrations and modifications;
- the Decree 927 of 28th November 2017 "Institution and approval of the non-statal University legally recognized" denominata «Saint Camillus International University of Health Sciences», also called «UniCamillus» in Rome;

PROVIDED THAT

the student/the person exercising parental authority is required to read the Statute, the Tuition Fees and Contribution Regulation, the Didactic Regulations and the Documents posted on the University website, that detail the teaching methodologies, the Study Plan, the services provided, the rules for the delivery of said services, the evaluation criteria, the loss of student rights, the deadlines for the tuition fees, as well as the modalities for study withdrawal, discontinuation, or outgoing transfer.

THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Art. 1 Acceptance

The student _____ enrolled in the Degree Course in _____ for the A.Y. 2021/2022 subscribes to the services provided by the University and accepts them in the form in which they are provided.

Art. 2 Services

The enrollment in the University for the Academic Year 2021/2022 and the regular payment of the amounts due are the conditions required for the student to benefit of the related rights and services of the University for that Academic Year.

More specifically, the University undertakes to grant for all students:

- classrooms and teaching staff;
- access to areas dedicated to study;
- secretarial and mentoring services;
- access to labs, equipment and facilities for the clinical practice, within and outside the Lazio region, according to terms and timing set by the University.

Art. 3 Student's obligations

The student undertakes to actively take part in the activities promoted by the University, participating in all training activities related to the Course of studies - in compliance with the current laws or laws enacted as a result of emergency situations (e.g. Covid-19) -, including those required to fill any educational debts following the admission test (Additional Education Requirements, OFA, regulated by the Didactic Regulations of each Degree Course, and by the University Regulations) and the clinical practice provided for each course at the facilities indicated by the University. The student undertakes to fully respect the provisions of the Code of Ethics, the University Didactic Regulation, the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulation, and of the other Regulations and Programme Regulations for the achievement of the student's educational and professional objectives in the context of the curriculum chosen.

Art. 4 University contributions

University contribution is regulated by the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulation for the A.Y. 2021/2022, approved by the Organizational Committee of October 21st, 2020.

Art. 5 Exams and compulsory attendance

The exams and the compulsory attendance are regulated as provided for by the University Regulations and by the Didactic Regulations of each degree course.

Art. 6 Duration of the contract

The duration of this contract is equal to the official duration of the Degree Course or of the residual legal years in case of application/enrollment for the year following the first (1st), due to a transfer and/or recognition of the knowledge and/or professional skills according to art. 5, comma 7 of the Decree 22/10/2004 n. 270. In case the student repeats a year or is in his supplementary year, the contract will be tacitly and annually renewed for each additional Academic Year compared to the official duration of that Degree Course.

Art. 7 Transfer or withdrawal from studies

The transfer and/or the withdrawal from studies are regulated in terms and conditions as provided for by the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulations of reference, by the Didactic Regulations of each study course, and by the Calls for Application for the Admission to which the student participated.

In case of study withdrawal or outgoing transfer there will be no reimbursement, in any case, of the amounts already paid until the date of the submission of the withdrawal or transfer request.

The student who presents a study withdrawal is required regardless to pay in full the amounts provided for by the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulation relating to the Academic Year to which the student is enrolled.

Art. 8 Ethical Code and Organizational Model ex D. Lgs. 231/2001

Given that UniCamillus adopted the Ethical Code and, pursuant to the principles and guidelines provided for by the legislative decree 231/2001, the Organizational Management and Control Model ex D. Lgs. 231 (from now on "Organizational Model 231") published on the website www.unicamillus.org, the student explicitly declares to acknowledge the Ethical Code and the Organizational Model 231 adopted by the University UniCamillus, and commits to behave in accordance with the principles contained therein and in accordance with the legal provisions, and also to inform of all possible violations of the Ethical Code of the Organizational Model of which they should become aware, as well as related protocols and procedures, to the Supervisory Board of the University UniCamillus, to the e-mail address odv@unicamillus.org, or directly to the physical address of the Supervisory Body.

Moreover, the student acknowledges that in the case of non-observance of the abovementioned commitments in this declaration, UniCamillus may proceed with the resolution of the contract in accordance with and by art. 1456 c.c. notwithstanding the right to compensation for damages caused.

Art. 9 Communications with the University

Communications between the University and students via e-mail is regulated by the Electronic Mail Regulation and by the University Regulation.

Art. 10 Court

The Court of Rome shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute.
