

Vito Fencia MD

Registration number M 25212 (Rome – Italy).

Born in Bari on the 4th of November 1953. He got his medical degree in 1977 and his residency in Ophthalmology in 1981.

At this moment he is working as Extraordinary professor in Ophthalmology at Saint Camillus International University of Health and Medical Sciences-Rome. He is also Director of Ophthalmology service at Poste medical center in Rome. He is member of ethical committee IFO-Fondazione Bietti since 2014. He works as ophthalmologist at IDI (Dermatological Institute-Rome) and medical center of CONI.

Professional experience

Ophthalmology assistant at the Institute of Ophthalmology of Policlinico Umberto I (University of Rome “Sapienza”) since December 1987.

Confirmed Researcher at the same institute since 1999.

Researcher at the Faculty of Medicine and Psychology of the University of Rome “Sapienza” (since 2001) and I level Medical Staff Doctor at St. Andrea Hospital where he has been the Chief of the Vitreo-Retina Operative Unit until 2017. Since then he has the high specialty in retinal degenerative diseases.

Ophthalmology consultant of the IFO since 2006.

He was involved in the following teaching activities at the Faculty of Medicine and Psychology of Rome “Sapienza”:

- Teaching of Ophthalmology for the “Prevention Techniques in the Environment” Courses.
- Teaching in the Ophthalmology Residency.
- Teaching of “Ophthalmology” in the Medical Degree course.

He had experience in several clinical trials in Ophthalmology as Principal Investigator and co-investigator.

Since 2006, he collaborates in clinical trials with the University Institute of Neurology (Faculty of Medicine and Psychology of Rome “Sapienza”).

Collaboration in clinical trials concerning Oncology and Dermatology in IFO institute since 2012.

Member of the IFO’s Ethic Committee from February 2014.

Author of many publications in Italian and international journals.

Main research interests in vitreo-retinal diseases and maculopathies.

He conducted clinical research according to GCP and I authorize the use of my personal data according to D.Lgs. n° 196/2003”.