

TRAUMATOLOGY

A.Y. 2024/2025

CPD SECOND-LEVEL
COURSE

AIM

The primary objective is to train doctors, surgeons and civil and military health personnel capable of dealing with all emergencies concerning war events, natural disasters, road accidents and work.

participants shall be given advanced training to equip them to assist the injured person at the trauma site, by making an initial diagnosis and putting into practice the first emergency treatments including the management of the transport of the traumatised to the primary care hospital and/or the transfer of the patient to specific centres of high specialization at international level from an organisational point of view, clinician and medical examiner.

to complete the training, the master also provides a multi- specialized teaching intended to cover 360 degrees aspects of resuscitation, medical, infectious, orthopedic and surgical.

ATTENDANCE MODE:

The course is given in a mixed fad mode and in presence, therefore accessible in part from its premises: lessons divided into 24 modules.

The CPD Course Directors:

- Prof. Giorgio DeToma
- Dr. Mohamed Alghoj

The CPD Course Scientific Directors:

- Prof. Massimiliano Iannuzzi Mungo
- Prof. Dr. Ibrahim Ali J Jebail

Admission and selection criteria:

To be admitted to the CPD Course you must have at least one of the following degrees:

- MSc in Medicine and Surgery

They may also apply for:

- Candidates holding qualifications equivalent to those listed above obtained under the previous university system;
- Candidates holding an academic degree obtained abroad comparable in duration and content to those listed above. the university reserves the right to admit candidates possessing different qualifications but pertaining to the CPD Course.

Deadline: 19th July 2025
Start date: July 2025
Fee: write to postlaurea@unicamillus.org
Duration: 24 months

Language: English
ECTS credits: 120 ECTS
Available slots: min. 22
Call for Applications: downloaded from the website